

"Living on Cammeraygal land has taught me the value of storytelling, connection and inclusion. Sharing culture, learning across generations and strengthening community has been deeply rewarding."

Tim Moriarty
Local Indigenous Artist

"As a Cammeraygal descendant and Elder, it is my responsibility to share the knowledge, history, love and culture of my people with everybody in the North Sydney community."

Auntie Jean Moran
Indigenous Elder

"Over 50 years in North Sydney, I've seen the power of community action. Saving Waverton Peninsula and Berry's Bay remains a proud achievement, made possible by dedicated like-minded people."

Bruce Donald AM
Community Advocate and Campaigner

"Well, one weed led to another and many years later, I'm still involved with bush regeneration with Bushcare and Streets Alive and can't pull myself away from this valuable community work."

Nicole Bannister
Streets Alive and Bushcare

Get involved

Celebrating the heart of North Sydney

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever. I'm inspired to care for our local environment, keep the harbour clean and encourage others to help make North Sydney a more beautiful place."

Mary Curran
Streets Alive

"I want to live in a place where community matters. Volunteering in the community garden has kept me active, connected me with new friends and taught me so much."

Sue Wright
Streets Alive

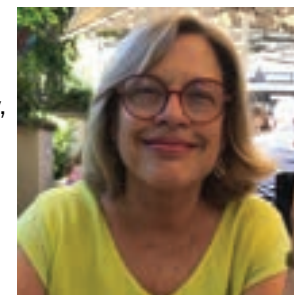

"I'd encourage other retirees to be proactive in retirement. Staying involved in the community is rewarding, keeps you connected and gives you a sense of purpose."

Tim Galvin
Streets Alive

"Community and people have always mattered to me. My life is in balance when it includes family, work, community involvement, making new friends and creating positive change."

Barbara DeGraff
Streets Alive

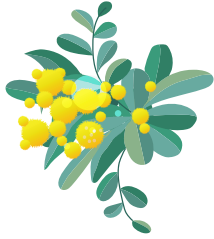

"My work with Streets Alive and Bushcare is inspired by a desire to create wildlife corridors across North Sydney. It's enjoyable working with other volunteers and seeing the results appreciated by walkers."

Vera Yee
Streets Alive

"The library sits at the heart of our community. Through volunteering, I've found friendship, purpose and the pleasure of helping others discover great books."

Gretel Jones
Kirribilli Neighbourhood Centre

"I believe we all have a role to play in creating the world we want to live in. It's rewarding to see our streetscapes and gardens transformed and to hear the gratitude expressed by neighbours and the wider community."

Edmond Yan
Streets Alive

"As a migrant, contributing to North Sydney has helped me build connections, find a sense of belonging and use my skills to make a positive difference in the community."

Lucia Ramirez
Neutral Bay Community Centre

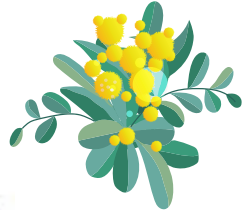

"Being involved in Streets Alive has strengthened my sense of belonging and provided a meaningful way to give back. Seeing neighbours come together and public spaces become more vibrant and welcoming is incredibly rewarding."

Stewart Hodgson
Streets Alive

"North Sydney's strong sense of community makes it deeply rewarding to support our residents – especially those in strata – through the transition to sustainability, benefiting individuals and the community alike."

Rob McKay
Sustainability

"Being part of a growing culture towards sustainable living, that's what inspires me to contribute to the North Sydney community. Sharing stories and enthusiasm for food gardens with locals has been a highlight."

Judith French
Community Gardens

"I believe strong communities are built through active involvement. Seeing positive results through teamwork and feeling a genuine sense of belonging makes contributing deeply rewarding."

Cathie Glinka
Rotary Club of North Sydney Sunrise

"Bushcare has given me friendship, purpose and a sense of peace while helping protect North Sydney's native bushland. I encourage everyone to get involved."

David Yip
Bushcare

"As a first-generation immigrant, I wanted to build connections and support others like me. Our book club has brought people together through books, friendship, shared experiences and the arts."

Sophia Zhang
Blue Vision Book Club

